

JUNE PROGRAM

As professional translators and interpreters,
and as an organization,
we need to make decisions, and we need YOUR input.

Please join us at this month's meeting

CHICATA MATTERS

On Saturday, June 28, 2008 from 2:30 to 5:00 pm

At the Sulzer Regional Library Community Meeting Room (4455 N Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, IL)

We will divide the meeting in two sections:

- ✓ The first part will be a mini-shop talk, where we will discuss topics relevant to translators and interpreters. Some of the topics may be: marketing; dictionaries; software, contracts, workshops, language-specific groups, style guides, etc.
- ✓ The second part of the meeting will be a discussion of CHICATA organizational issues. Some of the issues may be: publicity, the nominating process, 2009 Conference planning, newsletter, setting up a programming committee, etc.

Don't forget to join us for dinner after the meeting at

Tallulah Restaurant, 4539 N. Lincoln, at 5:15 PM
